

Name: _____

A data set is normally distributed with a mean of 60 and a standard deviation of 4. The probability that a measurement is bigger than 63 is 0.2266. Find the probability that a measurement is:

a) between 60 and 63

b) between 57 and 63

0.5468

c) smaller than 57

